ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR SHERIFF.

We are authorized to announce E. P. Clarke as a candidate for Sheriff of Bourbon County, with Albert S. Thompson and Wm. F. Talbot as deputies, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce Harvey Hibler as a candidate for Sheriff of Bourbon County, with Brutus J. Clay, Jr., and James Burke as deputies, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

A. O. U. W. Pic-nic.

The picnic to be given by Garth Lodge, No. 43, A. O. U. W., of this city, at the Fair Grounds on the 20th of this month, will be a hummer. Of course, the star attraction will be the presence of Governor Beckham. The Governor is a member of the Frankfort lodge, and when the subject of his attending the picnic was mentioned to him he gladly accepted the invitation, and said the A. O. U. W. order had a very warm place in his heart, and that he would gladly do anything in his power to aid them in their grand work of charity. He will be given a rousing reception by the people of Bourbon.

Determined to make this picnic a record-breaker and determined to have nothing but the best, the committee has engaged the celebrated First Regiment Band of Cincinnati to furnish the music. A mammoth dancing platform, 60x40 feet, will be erected, and dancing will be indulged in during the day and until a late hour of the night.

One of the star attractions will be the celebrated aeronaut "Pat Rooney." Mr. Rooney is an educated man who makes balloon ascensions and parachute leaps that for daring and sensationalism have never been equalled by any member of the human family. Mr. Rooney makes the ascension in the ordinary balloon, and when at the height of one mile, at the signal of a pistol shot, pulls the string that releases the parachute and gracefully descends to mother earth, waving the American flag and calmly receiving the plaudits of the multitude. This is one of the most sensational, and at the same time, amusing acts ever seen.

At night a magnificent display of fire works will be seen, ending with a mammoth set piece, emblematical of the order, with the anchor and shield surrounded by "C. H. & P." This feature alone will be worth the small price of admission charged to the picnic.

And then in the afternoon the baby show. Every mother in Bourbon county thinks her baby the dearest, sweetest and cutest ever. The A. O. U. W.'s are going to give two handsome prizes (which will be announced later) to the finest boy and girl baby, form and feature both to be considered. The judges will be selected on the grounds just prior to the contest, and after the prizes have been awarded the judges will be given a safe military escort to the depot.

At 10 p. m. there will be a prize waltzing contest. Two prizes, one to the gentleman and one to the lady, will be given to the most graceful waltzing couple.

Every form of amusement that can be thought of will be indulged in. There will be the worst turnout, the mule and umbrella race, sack race, potato race, boys' foot race, girls' foot race, catching the greasy pig, climbing the greasy pole, athletic sports of every kind, in fact everything that will tend to make the day one long to be remembered. The "Country Store" will enable you to get some wonderful bargains, and when you are tired, dancing the "Merry-go-round" will both rest and refresh you.

Every A. O. U. W. lodge in Central Kentucky will send a delegation, and, of course everybody in Bourbon county will be there to give the "glad hand" to the Governor.

Stamp the date on your mind, Thursday, August 20.

Sealed bids for privileges will be received at S. E. Borland's paint store up to and including Saturday evening, August 8.

NEW PLACE.—Mr. Geo. T. Lyons is ready to wait on his customers in his new building, on Main near 10th. He now has one of the neatest saloons in the city.

SIX WILLS.—Six different wills of the late Cassius M. Clay were filed for probate in the Madison Court Monday. All of them, with the exception of one, were opened. Objections were made to the probate of any wills by the attorneys of Dora Clay Brock, the former wife of the General, and the matter was passed over until the first Monday in September.

HAVE you seen those ladies' Oxfords that have just arrived at Thomson's?

BIG FIRE.—Fire at Junction City, Ky., Wednesday morning destroyed the Commercial Hotel, Good Bottling Works, the residence of Mrs. S. A. Moore, W. C. Woodford's confectionery, Vogel's produce house and B. W. Darnam's drug store, a total loss of close to $90,000.

Storage Room To Let.

Having finished my large and commodious warehouse, I am in a position to take care of most any kind of storage. Rates for storage and insurance reasonable. Wheat and bluegrass seed especially desired.

DESERTED TO MARRY.—On the eve of his marriage James Stinnett, 27 years old, was arrested at his home in Garrettsville, Meade County, this week, charged with being a deserter from the United States army. Stinnett quarreled with his sweetheart at the beginning of the Spanish-American War and in a fit of pique enlisted. He thought she would be broken-hearted, but she laughingly told him to go to the front and make a man of himself. After Stinnett left Garrettsville his sweetheart felt her old love returning, and she wrote him many letters, telling him how much she missed him and wishing that he were back again. The letters fanned the flames of Stinnett's love and he deserted. He kept in correspondence with his sweetheart, and this week returned to Garrettsville to marry. As soon as he reached the town he was arrested. He was taken to Ft. Thomas yesterday morning.

Begins Next Week.

Lexington Horse Show, Fair and Carnival to be bigger and better than ever this year. The Lexington Horse Show, which begins next week, promises to be bigger and better than ever this year. The Lexington Elks say "everybody is coming" and will come near proving true. DeBaugh's Celebrated Twentieth Century Band will be heard this year, and there will be many other features. DeBaugh is well known in Kentucky, having filled a number of highly successful engagements in this section. He has played at the Lexington Trots and at the Lexington Elk's Fair previous to this year. The band will consist of thirty-five men and will be augmented by the celebrated DeBaugh Megaphone chorons. The sensational head-end collision takes place Wednesday, August 12.
